CERTAIN ingenious Chinese, says the Straits Times, are making a handsome profit by a smart fraud. Some merchants in town are wont to sell goods to Chinese and to receive payment in rolls of copper coin, each roll containing fifty cents. The Chinese referred to are substituting for these rolls packages containing a piece of bar iron the exact size and weight of a roll of furby eight cents; and an ordinary cent is put on each end of the bar in oase of the end of the roll being oponed. One merchant alone received recently forty dollars in alleged rolls of conper and found on opening them that each roll contained two cents and an iron bar.
